Dear all,

It was confirmed earlier in the week that Brexit will not affect Eastern Europeans wanting to come & work in the UK nor any Eastern Europeans working in the UK already.

UK cannot properly function without EU workers, no matter their country of origin: Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary or Italy, France, Germany, Portugal. Not because the British people does not want to work in those jobs, but because the unemployment rate in the UK is currently under 5%. It is 4.7% to be more precise, probably the lowest in the world, one of the lowest anyway. So British people are working. The hotel businesses simply cannot find enough staff within the UK borders and they are desperately looking to hire from outside UK.

Official confirmation regarding the unemployment in the UK:

So, tell everyone the hotels and the restaurants are eager and happy to have them here as there are thousands of jobs available for everyone interested. Good salaries, accommodation and meals provided for each and every worker.

Do assure each candidate of our full support while in the UK working. I would be happy to somehow encourage them to register with you for a job here. Please send them my best regards and pass the message below:

Hey there,

My name is Chris Wallace. I am the proprietor of one of the most well known recruitment firms in the UK, with over 31 years of experience in the hotel industry: hotel management and hotel recruitment combined.

TS and Promo have been worked together for about 6 years now. Promo is our most reliable recruitment partner and as of today we've placed exactly 214 candidates coming from them and new ones will be getting a job in the coming days. Many have embraced a career in the hospitality sector, some are hotel managers, restaurant managers, bar supervisors, head of housekeeping. They have their own car here and moved in their own accommodation.

So, if you are looking for a hotel or restaurant job and/or want a career in the UK, feel free and comfortable to contact Promo International and they will securely guide you and help through the process and beyond.

We'll be happy to assist you once you arrive in the UK. Good to know that most of our employers are located in England, but Wales and Scotland are spectacular and safe work and travel destinations. Just let us know your preferences and we'll make sure you'll be placed according to your request.

Take care and we're looking forward to have you in the UK!

*Sincerely,
Chris*
